URGE PROTECTION.

Cotton Situation Seriously Alarming Bankers and Producers.

Telegrams are pouring in to members of Congress from southern bankers and some producers urging that the government take action with reference to the cotton situation without delay in the fear that the market might break to a low point. There is danger, some of the interior points report, of there being no market for cotton after the middle of August. It is pointed out that with a 15,000,000 bale crop in sight the market will not continue in excess of 9,000,000 bales, leaving a surplus of 6,000,000, which would give a total surplus of 9,000,000 with the three million carried over from the last crop, unless there is a better opportunity to move the cotton. The condition, as viewed by the banking interests, has raised a situation for creation of the United States Cotton Corporation, which could deal with cotton as an international asset and save the south from probable embarrassment. The bankers say they particularly feel the need of action in view of the large amount of cotton paper carried by them. Members of Congress from the south do not view with favor the price fixing plan that has been suggested, unless it is apparent nothing else will meet the situation. They insist that the producer would have to have a minimum of 25 cents per pound in order to make a profit.

ICE CREAM SUPPLY.

The Red Cross ladies of Hickman will have an ice cream supper at the railroad park tomorrow (Friday) night, the proceeds from which will be used for Red Cross work. The cream will be furnished gratis by Ben Neuring, who has two brothers in France. Get some of the Ben Neuring spirit of liberality and attend the supper. If you don't refresh ice cream—take a bunch of friends who do.

It is predicted that within a very short time after the government takes control of the telegraph and telephone service of the country that the "wire system" phones in the cities will be cut out, and there will be only one system. There are over one thousand cities in the United States with two telephone systems, which are costing the people unnecessarily thousands and thousands of dollars.

The supply of kerosene will run short next winter and government is urging every user to do his part to ward making every gallon to do full war duty by giving forth its full measure of light and heat. Saving can be accomplished, it is said, only if care is given lamps, lanterns, heaters and stoves.

On Thursday evening of last week Miss Irene Farris entertained a few friends at bridge in honor of Mrs. Conrad, of New Madrid, Mo., who is the guest of Mrs. A. A. Farris, Jr. An ice cream was served.

The river at this point is very low at the present time, a big snag showing up several days ago just opposite Cowgill's drug store. This was pulled up on Saturday by the snag boat, Max camp.

Mrs. J. W. Flynn and daughter, Miss Katie Flynn, left the latter part of last week for Paducah where they will reside. Mr. Flynn went there about two or three weeks ago.

Change in Military Regulations Will Qualify Smaller Men.

The Local Board of Fulton county is in receipt of revised instructions regarding the qualification of men for military service. Hereafter, if a man weighed less than 110 pounds or was less than 5 feet 3 inches high, he was turned down. The new ruling lowers the figures so that the man weighing as much as 103 pounds or is not less than 60 inches high may be placed in service.

This ruling will requalify a number of drafted men in Fulton county who were originally turned down on under weight and height. They will be reclassified by the Board and certified for service.

Cayce B. Parrish and Miss W. C. Jones have returned from St. Louis where they went to purchase equipment for the new Parrish & Ward garage, now under construction. Parrish tells that he bought the complete and best to be had, including several automobile appliances. With a $10,000 building cost, equipped with 10th, Messer, Parrish & Ward, they doubtless have one of the finest garages in western Kentucky.

Harry C. Harrison, who is now temporarily located at Paducah, is here visiting his father, Mrs. Mary Jones, and brothers, Andy and Ben Harrison. This is his first trip back to the old home in 17 years.

ICE SHORTAGE.

Heat Wave Creates Big Demand for Ice in Hickman.

The ice plant in the K. Light & Power Co. in Hickman was made to supply ice for the city. Since the first week from the ice plant has been very dry. As late as the first of last week, "puffed" from the cooling coils, customers were waiting to have them. The plant has a capacity of fifteen tons every 24 hours, and it is not possible to run it full time. Some of the ice is sent away from the city. The shortage has caused a big demand for ice. While all customers are being supplied at present, the shortage is not likely to create any trouble.

Heat Wave Brings Heat—Fulton.

NO WHEATLESS DAY.

Domestic Users Released From Observing One Flourless Day.

Another step toward partial resumption of the nation's flour supply was taken Saturday by the Food Administration in releasing the domestic users from voluntary pledges to observe the flourless day, which was observed last week. This follows closely the release of hotels, restaurants, clubs and other places.

No change has been made, the Food Administration has announced, in the requirement that all flour be required to contain the minimum of 13 percent of wheat. Bakers will be required to use "family" brand, containing at least 20 percent wheat substitutes. Coming in of the new wheat crop has made it possible for the release of domestic users from observing the flourless day.

Farmers, who also were only required to observe the flourless day for one week, will be required to observe the flourless day for three months, starting at one time, if they so desire, but no more.

STORE BURGLARIZED.

Bradberry's store in East Hickman, was broken into Friday night and $100 or $125 worth of merchandise stolen, including fruit, candy, cigars, etc. The act was committed some time between 1 o'clock and daybreak. No clue was left.

Fred Bonbright, who is now stationed at Dayton, Ohio, and wearing the insignia of the aviation corps, spent the first of the week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Bonbright, and Hickman friends. Fred is in the aviation corps, where instruction is given in the construction and operation of new machine guns, bombs, etc. He has reason to believe that he will go over in a very short time, and will probably be assigned to handle a machine gun on an aeroplane. Fred is looking fine but is considerably lighter than when he left home.

Heat Wave Creates Big Demand for Ice in Hickman.

The ice plant of the Ky. Light & Power Co. at Hickman was unable to supply the demand for ice Sunday when the heat came from the big stove. As fast as the ice was piled up, it melted from the heat. The plant has a capacity of 100 tons every 24 hours, but it is unable to run it at full time. Some of the ice was taken from the plant. The extremely hot weather of the past few days is called in an extremely heavy demand for ice. While all customers are being supplied at present, the company is unable to create any reserve.

NO WHEATLESS DAY.

Domestic Users Released From Observing One Flourless Day.

Another step toward partial resumption by the nation of its old habits of eating was taken Sunday by the Food Administration in releasing the home wives from voluntary pledges to curtail the consumption of wheat by observing one wheatless day each week. This follows closely the release of hotels, restaurants, clubs and other places of public eating.

No change has been made, the Food Administration announced, in the half and half rule and purchasers of wheat flour will be required to continue the purchase in equal weight of wheat substitutes. Bakers will be required to make "victory" bread, containing at least 25 per cent wheat substitutes. Coming in of the new wheat crop has made it possible for the release of voluntary wheat saving pledges, the administration said.

Farmers who raise wheat, may still get 42 pounds of flour per bushel for each member of their family, while non-wheat raisers are still subject to the six pounds a month per capita ration. Farmers exchanging wheat for flour may secure a three months supply at one time, if they so desire.

MONTHLY PAYMENTS.

War Insurance Not Paid in Lump Sum, But 240 Installments.

Widespread impression that insurance of men in the military service is paid in lump sum after their death, led the war department to make the announcement that payments of benefits under the war risk insurance are made over a period of twenty years. The insurance is payable on the death of the insured on the basis of $5.75 per month for each $1,000 of insurance for 240 monthly installments. For the maximum of $10,000 the beneficiary would receive a payment of $57.50 per month for twenty years.

Winners, which are rather more numerous and just about as conspicuous as the trees in the Washington forest, having a grand debate among themselves. Half of them say that the President will appear on your next prohibition; the other half say that he is about to come out openly for it. There is little doubt that some time before November 1st, the Congress of the United States will enact a war prohibition law. Will the President veto it? We have not the remotest idea that he will be guilty of such criminal folly.

COTTON PRICES.

Not to be Fixed by Government at Present, Official Says.

That the War Industries Board is not going to fix the price on cotton is indicated by a letter received by H. G. Hastings, president of the Atlanta Chamber of Commerce, at Atlanta, from George R. James, chief of the cotton and cotton fibers section, War Industries Board.

The letter follows: "So far as the immediate future is concerned, I think you need give your selves no uneasiness about the War Industries Board attempting to fix prices on cotton, for as a general rule an attempt is made by the War Industries Board to fix prices on any raw material where the surplus is absorbed. In the minds of some it is a question whether it would not be better for the producer if the prices were fixed, provided they were in line with the present cost of production, rather than run the risk of a demonized market. Recent tendencies of spot quotations have not been encouraging for the new crop."

CALOMEL DYNAMITES A SLUGGISH LIVER.

Crashes into sour bile, making you sick and you lose a day's work.

Calomel salivates! It's mercury. Calomel acts like dynamite on a sluggish liver. When calomel comes into contact with sour bile, it crashes into it, causing cramping and nausea.

If you feel bilious, headachy, constipated and all knocked out, just go to your druggist and get a bottle of Doctors' Liver Tonic for a few cents which is a harmless vegetable substitute for dangerous calomel. Take a spoonful and if it doesn't start your liver and straighten you up better and quicker than nasty calomel and without making you sick, you just go back and get your money.

If you take calomel today you'll be sick and unsteady tomorrow; besides it may salivate you, while if you take Doctors' Liver Tonic you will wake up feeling great, full of ambition and ready for work or play. It's harmless, pleasant and safe to give to children; they like it.

A CALL TO DUTY.

From the battle fields in France these come in tremendous call that should not be heeded in every American heart. The recent great events in Europe, the success of American arms in the fields of France, should spur every American to greater effort. Our people at home should not rest on the laurels of our soldiers in France. Every death on the field of honor in the line of duty and for our country's cause should be a call to us for every sacrifice and every exertion to aid the cause for which our soldiers are fighting, for which our soldiers have died.

Increase production, decrease consumption, save, and lend to the Government. Every cent lent to the United States is used to support, strengthen and aid our soldiers in France.

No Worms in a Healthy Child

All children troubled with worms have an unhealthy color, which indicates poor blood, and as a rule, there is more or less stomach disturbance. GROVE'S TASTELESS CHLORINE TONIC given regularly for two or three weeks will enrich the blood, improve the digestion, and act as a General Strengthening Tonic to the whole system. Nature will then throw off or digest the worms, and the child will be in perfect health. Pleasant to take, 60c per bottle.

The fuel administration has been urging the people since March to lay in their supply of coal for next winter. When zero weather comes and no coal can be secured, just go around to the chimney corner and butt your brains out for not having sense enough to do what the government said you ought to do to keep from freezing.

No man, no matter if he can count his bonds by the thousands and bank stocks by the millions, has the right in these strenuous times to "lie around and do nothing." The vagrancy law should reach out for him and demand that he obey the scripture injunction to "earn his bread by the sweat of his brow."

WINTER GARDEN ON EVERY SOUTHERN FARM

(Prepared by the United States Department of Agriculture.)

Every Southern garden should have a supply of lettuce, spinach and radishes throughout the fall and winter and spring as they can be easily grown and form valuable additions to the usual dry, winter diet. With more of such food products in the diet there would be less use for spring tunics and other delicacies. In addition to this, these food products are palatable and serve to lower the cost of living.

These crops obtain their best development on a sandy loam soil well supplied with humus or decayed vegetable matter. All of them thrive best during the late fall or early spring and are not wintered in the heart of winter. In all sections of the South, lettuce, spinach and radishes can be grown in the open throughout the fall, winter and spring. In the more northern of the Southern states and in high altitudes these crops can be grown in fall and winter in the open and during the winter in hotbeds or cold frames.

To have lettuce and radishes throughout the season, it is advisable to have sowings of seeds every two or three weeks. As soon as the crop is removed another crop should be planted. The radish seed sowing should be between the rows of lettuce. If seed sowing is to be given, the radishes should be sown before the lettuce reaches sufficient size to crowd. In making two sowings of radishes one to the fall and another in late winter or early spring, a continuous supply can be secured.

Lettuce.

In growing this crop in the open or in hotbeds and cold frames, the best results are secured by sowing the seed in a well prepared bed and transplanting the young plants. Sow the seed thinly in drills 1 to 2 inches apart and never more than one inch deep. For the best results, transplant the young plants as soon as they form the first true leaves. Set these plants in a well drained 2 inches apart each way and at such a depth as to bring the top of the plant to the surface of the soil. If the plants are to be grown in the open, set the plants 8 to 10 inches apart in rows 11 inches apart. When of the best type. For home use, the Boston or California Cream Butter might be given, as they are of better quality than the Big Boston. The market of the East demand a hard head lettuce of the Big Boston type, but the markets of the Central and West of the United States. Unless growing for local market, however, it is best to grow the headed type, because large quantities of the other kind are grown under glass in the central states.

Spinach.

Spinach can be grown in the open in all sections along the coast from Norfolk, Va., south and in practically all sections of the lower two of Southern states. In the colder regions of the South, this crop can be grown in the open with a little protection or in covered and covered frames throughout the winter.

The soil should be made fairly rich. Well-rotted manure is the best fertilizer, but if this is not available, apply at the rate of 50 to 100 pounds of a high-grade fertilizer per acre. Sow the lettuce or fertilizer broadcast and thoroughly harrow into the soil. Five ounces of seed will cover two plantings on the plot 20 feet square in drills 10 to 12 inches apart. Thin the plants out to stand three or four inches apart. Frequent shallow cultivation in hand or with a wheel hoe should be given. When grown in frames, the cultivating must be done by hand. In most sections of the South, however, spinach can be grown in the open without any protection, as a hard freeze causes very little injury.

The variety of spinach most commonly grown is the Savoy. At Norfolk, Va., the large truckers grow a strain of this variety called the Norfolk Savoy.

Radish.

Radishes should be grown rapidly to insure good table qualities. The soil should be fertile and contain abundant moisture. Fresh stable manure should not be used, however, as it would produce excessive leaf growth. Well-rotted manure is the best fertilizer and should be applied at rate of about two tons per acre. If no

GOLDEN WEDDING.

Is Celebrated by Mr. and Mrs. Sam B. Parler, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam B. Parler have had a golden wedding anniversary in the City of Norfolk, Va., and a party of friends celebrated Sunday, July 28, their golden wedding anniversary in Golden Wedding.

In honor of all these years of happy married life, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Wright (the young lady being daughter) celebrated their wedding a large party of the guests friends, and the anniversary was one of the most pleasant occasions for all concerned in the celebration.

The couple were married at a large number of beautiful girls in the city, and the celebration, being with congratulations and good wishes. Refreshments of cream and cake were served.

The following were present: Mrs. Maggie Randle, Mrs. C. G. Schuler, J. T. Stephens and wife, J. H. Brown and wife, Mrs. J. D. Price, Mrs. Victoria Walker, Mrs. Walker and wife, J. H. Miller and wife, Mrs. Lee Reed, Mrs. Fidelity Reed, R. M. Jeter and wife, J. W. Rogers and wife, P. J. Stevens and wife, W. C. Spivey and wife, J. C. Sexton and wife, A. A. Cross and wife, Mrs. Florence Parks, Misses L. E. and Irene Parks, Miss Adell Allen, Dr. and Mrs. W. M. Bright, E. B. Taylor and wife, Miss Alice Ladd, W. J. Smith and wife, of Troy, and Mrs. Ida Cooper of New Madrid, Mo.

Mr. and Mrs. Parler are not "old folks," in the common sense of the word, they have just been here a long time—and are as jolly and full of life as the average couple celebrating their 50th anniversary. The courier joins their many friends in the wish that they may live to see a 100 years more.

Incidentally, it might be added that Mr. and Mrs. Parler's golden anniversary is one of the few celebrated here in the past quarter of a century, only three others we recall at present. If Buchanan and wife, Otto Herwick and wife, and R. E. Miller and wife—all of whom, except Mr. Herwick, have passed away.

PUSH HUNS BACK.

Enemy Positions Reported to Be in Grave Danger.

In spite of tremendous efforts put forth by the Germans to check the relentless pressure of the allies north of the Dnieper River, the German positions there are in grave danger. French, British and American troops, east of Peresch-Tardens, have driven a wedge into the enemy's line and seem to be in a position to compel a hurried retreat from Roucheres and St. Germain, at the extreme bottom of the salient between Soissons and Reims.

The allied line today runs south from Soissons to Grand Rozoy, and then it begins to turn to the east. It passes just north of Peresch-Tardens and continues the apex of the wedge at the village of Nostes, where it runs sharply toward Roucheres.

All around the salient there has been a continuous battle during the last two days, with the Germans launching repeated counter attacks. They have all failed and the allies have gained important ground.

Immediately south of Soissons and west of Reims the German lines are strongly held, but enemy efforts to improve his position in the latter region have broken down.

There now seems to be little doubt that the Germans will retreat to the Vesle River as soon as possible.

Seventy-one German divisions (224,000 men), so far have been used in the battle area of the Marne-Aisne salient. They comprise more than one-third of the whole German army, and the best third.

Five of these divisions have been in action since the German attack began on July 15, and what perhaps is most significant, ten of them are from Prussia—the army group in the north, thus reducing the mobile reserve forces opposite the British by nearly one-half.

PICNIC AUGUST 15

Masons of County Will Hold Joint Picnic and Fish Fry.

The committee in charge of arrangements for a joint picnic and fish fry for the Masonic lodges of Fulton county met at Chico last Wednesday and named Thursday, August 15th, as the date for this fraternal gathering. It is to be held at Willingham Bridge, about mid-way of the county, and will be an all-day affair. This picnic was scheduled to take place June 21, but in account of so many farmers being engaged in harvest, it was postponed.

A member of the committee informs us that they hope to make it a pleasant day for old and young; that there will be music, speaking games for the little folks, refreshments, etc. While fish and coffee are to be free, folks are asked to bring baskets sufficiently filled to provide for their immediate families and guests.

transplanting to frames, the plants should be set 8 to 10 inches apart each way. Lettuce seed is sometimes sown in rows in the field and the plants thinned out to stand the proper distance.

The soil for lettuce should be thoroughly prepared as very little cultivation can be given when the plants attain considerable size. While the plants are small, the soil should be cultivated to keep down weeds and prevent a crust forming. In the frames, a hoe or hand weeder can be used, while in the open a wheel hoe can be used to good advantage.

There are two general types of lettuce, loose leaf and the heading types, of the loose-leaf types, the Grand Rapids and Black Seeded Simpson are among the best varieties, while the Big Boston is the best variety for market.

manure is available, apply at the rate of 100 pounds per tenth acre of a good grade complete fertilizer.

Sow the radish seed in rows 12 inches apart in the field and cover one-half to one inch deep, depending upon the soil. In light, dry soil, cover one inch deep and on heavy moist soil, cover one-half inch. When grown in hot beds or cold frames the rows of radish need not be more than four or five inches apart, or just wide enough for hand hoeing and weeding.

There are three types of radishes, turnip-shaped, olive-shaped and long. Of the turnip-shaped, the best varieties are the Scarlet Globe and Scarlet Turnip. The best of the olive-shaped are the French Breakfast and Early Scarlet. The Charter Long Scarlet, Long White Spanish and Icicle are the best varieties of the long type.

WHEAT WILL WIN THE WAR.

A noted English statesman said recently that if the people of America had failed to win this war that England and France would have been compelled to withdraw from the first and as a result the Allies would have lost the war. This demonstrates the importance of wheat and the fact that WHEAT WILL WIN THE WAR.

The government of the United States realizes that the two most important factors in winning the war are men and food and it is dispatching the best equipped of our resources for the service in the trenches and in cutting on the farmers to produce the most abundant amount of food. There is no better way for farmers to answer this call for food than by sowing this fall every acre to wheat that is possible and to sow it with such care that it will yield a bountiful harvest.

The patriotic farmer will give no thought to the price he will receive for his wheat but will think only of the starving poor of Europe and our boys in the trenches who are fighting our battles and who must be fed.

Our boys are drafted into the army by the Government and the wheat they shall receive, which may be the wages of death, are fixed by the Government and the boys who do not spend and are fighting whether they can afford to fight our battles for these wages. They know their country has called them and they answer the call without complaint or reservation. Your country is asking you to raise as much wheat as possible and you will not spend any time figuring whether you can afford to grow wheat at the price fixed by the Government. You should realize only that your country has called for and you will do your best for WHEAT WILL WIN THE WAR.

No thought should be given to the possibility of losing money to harvest the wheat next year for the Government will permit no wheat to go to waste but will find some means of providing subsistence for the farmer.

England has been more than six and one half years fighting her battles and is now at the end of her resources. She has no more money to buy wheat from America and she needs wheat. American wheat is the only thing that can help her in the war.

From now until wheat sowing time the patriotic American farmer will sow his land with wheat in the most careful and will say it truly: "I will this fall sow all the wheat I can for WHEAT WILL WIN THE WAR."

JUTLAND

In a Jutland Village.

JUTLAND, the low-lying, sandy peninsula whose name historians probably will employ to designate the great naval battle fought off its shores by the British and Germans, is the continental portion of Denmark and comprises nearly two-thirds the area of the kingdom (exclusive of colonial possessions), but with considerably less than half the total population. It compares with Vermont in size but has a density of population three times as great, says a bulletin of the National Geographic society. Its most striking physical characteristics are the fjords which cut into the sandy seaboard, particularly on the west coast. Of these the largest, Limfjord, is today a salt-water lake since 1522 it has been a sound, joining the waters of the North sea with the Kattegat and making an island of the extreme northern portion of the peninsula which terminates in a cape called the Skaw. Owing to the character of the soil on both banks, the rapidity of the current and the violent impact of the floating ice in the spring, only a pontoon bridge spanned this sound at Aalborg until recently.

The highest point of land in Jutland, which is also the highest in the kingdom, is a 564-foot "eminence" in a line of low hills near the center of the peninsula.

Ancient Home of the Cimbric.

Jutland was the ancient home of the warlike Cimbric, a tribe which for 12 years kept Rome in a state of panic, and which was the first Germanic host to make its way across the barrier of the Alps into northern Italy, participating in the conquest of the Roman Empire. The Cimbric came within 113 B. C., when, after having been driven from their northern home, supposedly by North sea inundations, and having made their way southward through the German forests, they inflicted a signal defeat upon a Roman army under Consul Papirius Carbo at Norcia. Instead of following up their success into Italy, the victors pushed westward into the Rhine valley. Four years later, however, they practically annihilated the Romans under Marius Junius Silanus on the field Arausio, where 80,000 troops were slain.

This terrible reverse sent a tremor of terror through the lawmakers on the Capitoline hill, and the constitution was set aside in order that Marius, fresh from his triumphs on African battlefields, might be invested with consular powers for five years. He was deemed the man of the hour and the only general who could turn back the tide of barbarians that had debouched from Cimbric Chersonese, the name given to Jutland. While this tribe poured over the Alps, driving the forces of Catullus before it across the Adige and the Po, Marius administered a crushing defeat at Aquae Sextiae in Gaul to the Cimbric's companions in arms, the Teutones. The consul then rushed back across the Alps and at Campi Raudii, near Verceil, where a century earlier Hannibal had won his first victory on Italian soil, the invaders were utterly annihilated, all the men being killed or captured while the women slew themselves and their children in preference to being borne to Rome in slavery.

Its Agricultural Regeneration.

Jutland's agricultural poverty dates from the beginning of the sixteenth century, by which time the peninsula had been almost completely denuded of its forests. It was not until 1830, two years after Denmark had been forced to relinquish Schleswig-Holstein to Prussia and Austria, that the Danish people began an appreciation of the latent agricultural possibilities of their remaining domain to see if by cultivation they could compensate for their territorial losses. Col. E. H. Hagen, an engineer officer of the Danish army, was the leading spirit in the organization of the Jutland Danish society which began to plant trees throughout the peninsula, a movement which is still going forward and which has proved to be the salvation of the land. Mountain pine were first planted and these were succeeded by red spruce from America. These trees serve as a living barrier against the fierce sand-driving gales from the North sea.

FEZ, A STRONGHOLD OF ISLAM

Capital of Morocco is Regarded as a Fair Specimen of What the Culture Produces.

Fez is the capital of Morocco. It is an odd mixture of progress and medievalism, of tolerance and fanaticism, of learning and superstition. These generalizations are the typical reaction of the occidental visitor to the life and manners of Fez. As a matter of fact, writes Nilsen, Fez is no city of contradictions, but quite consistent in view of the fact that the culture of the Orient and Occident have proceeded along somewhat different lines. Fez is a stronghold of Islam and a fair specimen of what the culture produces.

There is much poverty, much oppression, much disease; there is also much charity, a justice that is sometimes disconcertingly swift and an atmosphere that can only be described as one of resigned cheerfulness. Commerce is conducted on a ludicrously dilapidated scale, but the total of a month's trading in a six by ten emperium often amounts to staggering figures. Slaves are still to be had by those who know where to buy, and religious feeling runs so high that several Europeans have been killed for polluting the sacred atmosphere of mosques with their presence. Popular ignorance often reaches to the point where the individual in question is not cognizant of the existence of the American continent, and in the library of Fez are numerous absolutely priceless treasures in the shape of ancient tomes of learning. Certain books of Euclid, never seen by European eyes, are said to be guarded here.

THINGS WORTH KNOWING.

The lowest temperature ever recorded on the earth was taken at Verkhovsk, in the interior of Siberia, on January 15th, 1885. It was 90 degrees and a fraction below zero. Verkhovsk is in the latitude of the pole of cold. There the earth is frozen to a depth of about 100 feet, and in the warmest season it never thaws.

Out of every $100 received by the railroads, $10.80 is paid to the employees thereof; out of every $100 paid expenses, 80¢ goes as wages. If it is considered that practically all of the remaining 8¢ of expenses is used in purchasing material and supplies, and that a large percentage of the cost of these represents wages, it is safe to estimate that not less than 80 per cent of the expenses of the railroads is money paid directly or indirectly to labor.

The north wheel of an ordinary American watch makes four revolutions a day of twenty-four hours, or 1,440 in a year. Next the center wheel 24 revolutions a day, or 8,760 in a year. WHEN LITTLE ONE SINGS

When evening comes over the gray shadows fall,
Softly my little one sings,
Cuddles and coos to a little rag doll,
And babies of wonderful things,
Voice like a bird, and eyes like a dove,
Little one rocks in her chair,
And tenderly sings, while her motherly love
Warms to her little one there.

I want to get down by the side of her,
Too,
And rock-a-bye back through the years,
Voyaging the Shamblered River of sleep,
Untroubled by darkness or light,
To drift to a nest in the cradle of an arm,
And be in a cradle of dream,
Ah, little one, sing me the wonderful charms

Up, up from the lullaby stream,
And sing while the heart of you burns
In a song,
Cuddle your little one as,
For yours is a fleeting time, age is so long,
And you, little singer, will grow,
Age will lay hand on your curls, brown hair,
Make you a grown-up too soon,
If you are out of your little nest chair—
Sing, sing, while your heart is in tune.

Softly gray shadows come creeping down,
Little one journey away,
Mother and baby to Summerland town,
Drowsy-eyed dreamers asleep,
Leaving me here where a mist of love
Falls on my heart like a dew,
And heaven, I thank you, for you are in
So true,
Many the dreams that come to me

Mother's Cook Book

War Foods.

The new things that are being thought out by our housewives today will fill many recipe books and be a source of great comfort, because they mean good things with no increase in the foods we must save for our armies.

Cream Pie, Rice Crust.

Cook a cupful of rice in milk or in water until tender. Drain a well greased pie tin with the rice, then fill with the following cooked filling: A pint of milk, yolks of two eggs, a teaspoonful of corn starch, a half cupful of honey, and a teaspoonful of vanilla; cook until smooth and cover with a meringue made with the whites; set into the oven to brown.

Honey Custard.

Cook a pint of milk, a half cupful of honey and grating of nutmeg, two eggs, and a pinch of salt, over hot water stirring constantly, or bake setting the cups in hot water. Maple flavor may be used for a change.

Steamed Brown Bread.

Take two cupfuls each of barley flour and corn meal, one and a half teaspoonfuls of soda, three-fourths cupful of molasses, two cupfuls of sour milk, a teaspoonful of salt; mix well and steam three hours.

Potato Flour Sponge Cake.

Separate the yolks and whites of four eggs, beat yolks until thick, add one cupful of sugar, beat well, add the whites beaten stiff, a pinch of salt, a half cupful of potato flour and a teaspoonful of baking powder. Bake in a moderate oven 30 minutes.

Raisin Drop Cakes.

Take a third of a cupful of shortening, a cupful of sugar, two eggs, two cupfuls of corn flour, a cupful of raisins, a teaspoonful of vanilla, a cupful of milk. Mix as usual; bake in a moderate oven.

Cornmeal Muffins.

Take two tablespoonfuls of shortening, a half teaspoonful of salt, a half cupful of corn meal and five-eighths of a cupful of wheat flour, a teaspoonful of salt, two teaspoonfuls of sugar, the white of an egg and two-thirds of a cupful of milk. Cream the shortening and sugar, add salt, then milk, alternately with the dry ingredients. Lastly fold in the white of egg beaten stiff. Bake 20 minutes.

Jews in Kaiserland Unite for Protection of Rights

German newspapers recently received in London report the amalgamation of all the Jewish associations of the empire for the protection of the "legal rights of German Jews." The program adopted is described as their "irreducible minimum." The president is James Sloman, a Berlin merchant prince, contemptuously known in Junker circles as the "Court Jew" because of the Kaiser's personal friendship for him. The main demands of the new organization, as set forth in the Vossische Zeitung, are "legal and genuine" equality of rights and opportunities with other citizens "in all states," including the unrestricted right of emigration into the Turkish empire, especially Palestine. Similar centralization of Jewish associations, it is stated, is imminent in Austria-Hungary, Turkey and Bulgaria.

Restricting Walnut Exports.

The authorization of exports of walnuts from the French colonies (except Tunis and Morocco) to American and allied countries has been cancelled, according to a dispatch from Consul General Thackara in Paris. Special license must now be obtained and from the mother country as well. Similar action was taken regarding exports of animal hair from the colonies to this and other allied countries.

DESERVES A GOLD MEDAL FOR THIS.

Cincinnati authority tells how to dry up any corn or cullus so it lifts right off.

You corn-pothers men and women need suffer no longer. Wear the shoes that nearly killed you before, says this Cincinnati authority because a few drops of freezeze applied directly on a tender, aching corn stops soreness at once and soon the corn loosens so it can be lifted out, root and all, without a bit of pain.

A quarter of an ounce of freezeze costs very little at any drug store but is sufficient to take off every hard or soft corn or cullus. This should be tried as it is inexpensive and is said not to inflame or even irritate the surrounding tissue or skin.

If your wife wears high heels she will be glad to know of this.

HERE'S PROOF.

A Hickman Citizen Tells of His Experience.

You have a right to doubt statements of people living far away but can you doubt Hickman endorsement?

John Proctor, prop. Barker Shop, 810 Johnson Ave., says: "From overwork and standing so much, my kidneys became affected. I had sharp, stinging pains across the small of my back and the kidney secretions were troubling in passage. I had to get up at night quite a few times and the secretions were highly colored and scalding. In passage, I used Doan's Kidney Pills when I was troubled in that way and they never failed to benefit me."

PRIMARY ELECTION.

Next Saturday we vote for a United States Senator, the polls being open in the usual voting precincts. The Democratic candidates are Wm. P. Kimball and Ollie M. James. Republican—B. J. Bethune and Ben L. Bruner. There seems to be very little interest in this campaign.

Roy (Top) Jurney has been home on a short furlough, since our last issue, from Camp Taylor and visited his mother, Mrs. Avee Jurney, and his many Hickman friends. Friend Jurney is the very picture of good health and seems pleased with soldier life. He is in the 139th Depot Brigade.

Mrs. John Moore and children left Monday for Nashville, where they will reside. Their household goods were shipped several days ago.

E. L. Smith, of Cairo, has accepted a position here with Mangel Day Company on one of their derricks. Mrs. Smith is also here now.

NEW SUGAR RULING.

More than 50 million pounds of sugar was sunk by submarines recently and sugar is scarce at this time.

The rulings for August just received from the Federal Food Administrator is 2 pounds per person per month, and the merchant is required to keep a book or card system with the name, address, and the number of persons in each family that they sell sugar and the amount of sugar sold to each family, this book will be inspected by the Food Administrator and he will see that the rule is carried out, and people who get sugar from second merchants will be dealt with according to the instructions laid down in this ruling.

Washington advises that all people must can and preserve all the fruit that they can, and advises that the fruit be canned now and preserved later on when the sugar shortage is overcome. For canning you will be allowed 25 pounds of sugar and no more, so it will be necessary to be very careful about how you use sugar.

GET READY.

Now is the time that your hens will moult or shed their feathers. This process is rather slow and return should be assisted. A. B. Thomas' Poultry Remedy will help your hens to moult causing them to shed earlier and be ready to lay when eggs are highest in the winter. If this remedy does not make good, we will—F. R. Case.

One Garner found on the streets of Hickman Friday a two-headed lizard. This freak was of the ordinary fence rail variety, except that he had two well developed tails. Now, some wag will want to know if Hickman is a dry town.

At a recent meeting of the board of directors of the Hickman Bank & Trust Co., the entire personnel of the board voted to donate their fees to the local chapter of the Red Cross, which amounted to $80. This is a commendable, patriotic act, an example worthy of emulation.
